Notes for JEFFERSON BAIR:

Jefferson was born on the original Bair Homestead in Plain Twp, Stark County, OH. that Jacob Bair Sr. had acquired from President James Madison in 1810. After Jeff's mother had passed away, his father married Ann Margaret Pontius. The family then moved to the farm on Market that his father had previously purchased in 1856 when settling the estate of John Grubb. In the meantime, Jefferson's sister Elizabeth Bair Miller and family had been living on the home farm and when they decided to move to Indiana, Jefferson bought the home farm on May 10, 1884. To finalize the estate of Jeff's father, Jacob H. Bair, the farm on Market Ave. was sold at public auction to Isaac Markley on May 21, 1884.

County records indicate that Jefferson Bair acquired numerous parcels of land in Plain Twp. He was a successful farmer and a respected man in the community. He was one of the Charter members of the Reformed congregation when the Lutheran Church was built in Cairo in 1890. Quite sadly Anna passed away October 10, 1895, only ten days after her daughter was born. It has most of the original building inside and out. Linda also states that she had the best ice cream sundae's there!!!!!

In August 2002, my wife, Oreta, and I visited Steilacoom, WA. We visited the Bair Drug Store. Also, the Postal Boxes are still in place. Warren Bair was the grandfather of Jane and Barney. A sign on the outside of the buiding states "Bair Drug Store was Established in 1895 by W. L. Bair. In 1973 the Building & Property was Given to the Steilacoom Historical Museum by Eudocia Leech & G, l. Bair. He married ELIZABETH KAUFMAN March 05, 1911 in Akron, OH[280]. She was born September 19, 1886[280], and died April 21, 1941[280].

Notes for HUBERT J. BAIR:
Hubert J. Bair, most likely was born on his grandparents farm on the corner of Market and Applegrove roads, Plain Twp, Stark Co, OH., as his Aunt Elizabeth and family was living on the original homestead and Jefferson did not move there until his Sister moved to Indiana in 1884. Hubert attended Whitehall School which was on the corner of the above mentioned farm. He spent his early years on the family farm, and in keeping with the pioneer spirit of his forebears, at the age of 22, he joined the Western migration and journeyed to the State of Washington to start a new life. On September 29, 1905, in the City of Walla Walla, Washington, he filed a Homestead Claim on 160 Acres in Franklin County, across the Columbia River from Hanford, WA. Later, his brother Paul Bair also came West and filed a claim on an adjoining 160 Acre tract. This land was arid country that laid 500 to 600 feet above the Columbia River Basin and was commonly referred to as being on top of the "Bluff". The "Bair Brothers" bought an additional 160 Acres as well as land along the Columbia River that could be irrigated. Later, their Brother Roy L. Bair joined them and they purchased 640 more acres as well as further land along the River. Franklin County Court records reveal that they owned over 1150 Acres between the two areas. The Homestead Land had to be proved for five (5) years before a title could be secured. In the fall of 1910, the three "Bair Brothers" left for Ohio by the scenic route of Oregon-California--through the Southern States to Florida-then up the East Coast to Washington, D.C. and back to Plain Twp. They remained in Ohio that winter and on March 5, 1911, Hubert J. Bair and Elizabeth Kaufman, also from Plain Twp. were married in Akron, OH. They returned to Washington and established a home on the East banks of the Columbia River on land that could be irrigated. The "Bair Brothers" farmed their arid wheat land and did custom work for other Ranchers. The wheat was harvested with headers that took 30 to 35 horses to propel them. They also entered the road construction business in this new country.

In 1917 the family returned to Ohio for a visit and while there Hubert was injured in an accident at United Engineering Company in Canton which resulted in his death on November 8, 1917. (While in the hospital, Hubert had hernia surgery. Infection set in and caused his death - per Dawn Bair Princehorn, January 2002.)

Mrs. Bair never returned to Washington, but stayed in Ohio with her children. Two and one half years later she remarried and eventually moved to Wilmot, OH where she lived until she passed away on April 21,1941. (History of Bair Family by Hubert E. Bair, pg 55)

Paul Owen Bair was born on the "Bair" Homestead in Plain Twp, Stark County, OH. He attended Whitehall School and grew to manhood on the family farm. When he became of age, he also went West and joined his Brother Hubert by Homesteading land in Franklin County, Washington across the Columbia River from Hanford, plus buying additional land. On April 18, 1914 he was united in marriage with Dorothy Mary Petheram who happened to be visiting in Hanford. She was born in Bristol, England on November 25,1891. As the "Bair Brothers" branched out into custom wheat harvesting, Paul was in charge of those operations. They also became involved in road construction, and after Hubert passed away in 1917. Paul and Roy moved their headquarters to Spokane. Although Paul and Roy were jointly involved in Construction, they each had separate operations. Paul built many roads in that new country. Paul was involved in an auto accident in the early "40s" which impaired his health and he passed away on June 12, 1947. Notes for ROY LEE BAIR:
Roy was born on the original "Bair" Homestead in Plain Twp, Stark Co., OH. He also attended Whitehall School and grew up on the family farm. By the time he became of age, his two older Brothers, Hubert and Paul, already were living on Homestead land in Franklin County, Washington, so he decided to join them. After he arrived in the West, the "Bair Brothers" purchased 640 more acres of dry wheat land as well as further irrigatable land along the Columbia River, bringing their own land total acreage to over 1150 acres. Beside farming their own land, the "Bair Brothers" acquired horses and machinery to do custom wheat harvesting for area ranchers. They branched out to handle road construction. After their Brother Hubert died in 1917, Paul and Roy decided that trying to continue farming this dry land was no longer profitable and moved to Spokane to follow the road construction business. (Incidentally after the Grand Coulee Dam harvested the Columbia River in the early "40s", water was channeled to this dry high country and has been turned into a veritable garden. Paul held title to this land and it was finally taken over by the Government for the Hanford Atomic Research Center with the boundary line being the same as the Section line of the last 640 acres the "Bair Brothers" purchased.) After moving to Spokane, Roy married Edna Mae Harris. Roy concentrated his efforts in the Construction business and joined two other men in forming the Triangle Construction Company. After the death of one partner, the two continued for a number of years until Roy bought the interests of his partner and continued as the Roy L. Bair Construction Company. During World War II he used his machinery to build airports and later added building construction to his endeavors. Although he was very successful in his business life, he suffered the loss of his only child at birth. Roy passed away on July 2, 1953. Edna lived until December 23, 1965. Thus the curtain was lowered on the activities of the "Bair" families in the State of Washington that had started with Hubert filing on a Homestead in 1905. (History of Bair Family by Hubert E. Bair, pg 60)

Child of ROY BAIR and EDNA HARRIS is:

i. ROY LEE[6] BAIR, b. June 13, 1924; d. June 14, 1924.

192. WILLIAM J.[5] BAIR (JEFFERSON[4], JACOB H.[3], ABRAHAM[2], JACOB SR.[1]) was born July 14, 1892 in Plain Twp, Stark County, OH[280], and died November 11, 1978[280]. He married BURDELLA MAE LEHR July 14, 1915[280]. She was born March 19, 1894[280], and died August 09, 1970[280].

Notes for WILLIAM J. BAIR:
William was born on the original "Bair" Homestead in Plain Twp, Stark Co., OH. It is remarkable to note that he spent his entire life farming the land that had been in the "Bair" name since Jacob Bair, his Great, Great Grandfather, had acquired from President James Madison in 1809. Now that Ronald Bair is continuing to farm, they have maintained title to the land for almost 175 years. "Will" was a dedicated farmer and a highly respected man in his community. He entered into different phases of farming and in his later years settled with beef cattle. He also drove School Bus and received an Award for many years of faithful and dependable service. Notes for MARY ELIZABETH BAIR:
Mary was born on the original "Bair" Homestead in Plain Twp., Stark Co., OH. Tragically her Mother, Ann Fry Bair, passed away ten (10) days after she was born and she grew up without the benefit of a Mother's love. When she was 17 years old, she married Lloyd E. Saeger. They lived on a farm on Schneider Road, Plain Twp., for a number of years before moving to a farm on Georgetown Road in Nimishillen Twp., Stark County. Mary and Lloyd raised a fine family of 5 Sons and 2 Daughters who were a big help in operating the farm when Lloyd started the business of hauling milk from the area farmers into the Milk Companies in Canton, OH. Lloyd devoted many years of dependable faithful service in this work until he retired from it. Mary and Lloyd were very respected in the Community and were quite active in the affairs of Nimishillen Grange. When they decided to retire, they sold their farm and moved into a comfortable home at the East edge of Louisville, OH. Relieved of their seven day week responsibilities they were able to share a number of enjoyable years before Lloyd passed away. Mary was blessed with having all 7 of her children and their families in the immediate area to assist her in her declining years. Mary was a veritable Queen to all who knew her and almost reached 84 before she passed away. (History of Bair Family by Hubert E. Bair, pg 63)

Notes for CHARLES W. BAIR:
Charles was one of the prominent men of Hartville. He compiled a very complete History of the Bair Family and although he didn't record very many dates, he left a wealth of material for other compilers to build on, and I am most grateful for the many doors it opened for me. He later moved to Milwaukee, Wisc. (History of Bair Family by Hubert Bair, pg71)

I have a copy of his (Charles Bair) genealogy in my files and Hubert E. Bair (another Bair genealogist) has a copy (Note: Hubert passed away September 26, 1999). It was never published, however, many interested persons have had access to it in libraries in the area around North Canton & Canton, OH. (The North Canton Library seems to have lost it's copy in recent years). (Joanne Pettit Genealogy of Jacob Bair (Bair/Bear), 170 Sylvan Court, Circleville, OH 43113)

MARRIED (in Sabetha, KS)

A very pretty wedding occurred on Sunday evening, April 21,1901, at the Lutheran church on Pennsylvania Avenue, the occasion being the marriage of Miss Minnie Snyder to Mr. James Bishop in the presence of a large congregation. Miss Mary Warner presided at the organ, and as the sweet notes of the wedding march rang out, the bridal party were ushered up the aisle by Messrs. Norman Schaules and Peter Warner. When the altar was reached, Rev. Kistler stepped forward and spoke the solemn words of the marriage ceremony.

Miss Ruth Hoover acted as bridesmaid and Mr. John Lichty as groomsman.

The bride looked lovely in a beautiful costume of white (this was an error-- it was pale gray wool). The bride is the only daughter of J. d. Snyder and is one of the Avenue's noblest young ladies.

The groom is a prosperous young farmer of Rock Creek. The young couple have the best wishes of a host of friends for a long and happy life.

Mr. and Mrs. Bishop have gone to housekeeping on the Heikes place one mile north of the Avenue where they will be at home to their friends.

Notes for REV. KERMIT JAY BISHOP:
A BISHOP GENEALOGY

The following historical record of the descendants of Adam and Catharine Bishop was first prepared by the Rev. Paul E. Bishop, my brother, with the assistance of Charles W. Bair, the father of Ruth, Paul's wife, who then lived in Milwaukee where Paul was Pastor of Bay Shore Lutheran Church.

Much correspondence and a number of trips to Pennsylvania were necessary, plus the assistance of several professional genealogists, to secure the portions of this material put together by Paul and and Charles Bair.

In the late 1970's I learned of the existence of this material then in the possession of Paul's son, the Rev. James P. Bishop;, Professor at Cartage College, Kenosha, Wisconsin. I asked him to be able to see this material so he made copies of it and sent the copy to me in 1979. After reading it I decided to undertake to bring this family history up to date. I only wish I had been able to start earlier when Paul and my sister Grace were living as they would be of inestimable assistance. My sisters, Lela and Mildred, also had better acquaintance with many family members than I.

The record is not complete - and never will be. What is given here is what has been possible to put together at this time. I am indebted to many persons who have cooperated by giving me the necessary information. Due to the impossibility contacting many relatives because of unknown addresses, that information is missing. It may be possible to add that information if and when those members of the family are contacted and the information added in the proper places.

Since I am now 80 years of age, I am hoping some younger persons will undertake to carry on this work. It has been for me a very interesting project.

He was superintendent of schools at Radnor, OH following his graduation from Ohio Wesleyan Univ. in 1925 and was the youngest superintendent of schools in the state at that time. He was 22 years of age. He took graduate courses in education at Ohio State and Columbia Universities. He inspected schools and colleges in South America as a missionary to gain first hand knowledge of the life and customs of the people and to make further study of the Spanish language. At La Paz, Bolivia, he was the guest of several Bolivian young men, former college friends. The high altitude did not agree with him, so he did not stay long. For a time he was assistant pastor and social director of South Main St. M. E. Church. He was a teacher and administrator in the Cleveland Public Schools for 35 years with retirement in 1962. From 1951 to 1962 he was principal of William Dean Howells Jr. High School. He had been principal of Kennard JHS for 5 years after serving as assistant principal at Glenville High School. He always helped others along the road of life, not only with lover and advice, etc., but with material means as well. He was kind to students, relatives, and friends in many ways and shall always be remembered by them.

Notes for NED BAIR MINER:
An attempt was made by my wife, Oreta, and myself in October 2000 to find the Jacob Bair Sr. farm located north of Littlestown, PA. We were unable to find the farm. Later, a contact was made with Hubert E. Bair's daughter, Judy Bair Bank, concerning our plans to find the farm in October 2001. On October 10, 2001, Ned and Oreta Miner along with Judy Bair Bank and her husband, Tom, drove to the Gettysburg. PA courthouse. We visited the map department. Using a sketch and a marked map provided to me by Hubert E. Bair, dated September 9, 1978, we were able to locate the farm on the aerial view map. Copies were made of the section showing the farm. Using the aerial view copy, and the sketch provided by Hubert Bair and the knowledge of Tom Bank (son-in-law of Hubert Bair), we found the farm. It is to be noted that Tom Bank was with Hubert Bair when they located the farm in the 1970's. From Littlestown, take PA 97 north. Turn right on Whitehall Road. At the fork, turn right on Old Littlestown - Hanover Road. On the left side of the road is the boundary of the farm. Returning to the junction of Whitehall Road and Old Littlestown-Hanover Road, turn right on Whitehall Road. This section of Whitehall Road now cuts the farm in two. This section was cut through after the farm was sold by Jacob Bair Sr. in 1805. It was a great feeling to walk on the farm of my forebearer, Jacob Bair Sr.

In August 2002, my wife, Oreta, and I visited Steilacoom, WA. We made contact with Jane Bair Light and her brother, Byron (Barney) Bair. We met at the Bair Drug Store which was established by Jane and Barney's grandfather, Warren L. Bair. For a description of that visit, refer to the notes listed under Warren L. Bair.

On Februay 2, 2002 Dawn Marie Bair Princehorn and myself visited the Jacob H. Bair house on North Market St. See the note under Jacob H. Bair concerning this visit.
